Thank You Mr. <Prospect's Name>, before I explain the product features and benefits I would like to understand more about your business to ensure I only share the relevant details with you.

Understand Client

-May I know what kind of business you are functioning in and how many people work in your company?

Could you please tell me Do you run more than one business or branch?

Would you please help me with details on how you are currently handling their salary and attendance database?

May I know Do you have any field employees or does everyone work from your office?

<Pitch PagarBook benefits >

“Our lens app can help you track attendance, automate salary calculation and allow you to make the monthly payouts with one click. Our app can turn any mobile phone into a biometric device. Once set up, our facial recognition feature will automate the attendance process. You can track log in hours, late log ins, over time, and salary advance on the same platform. At the end of the month, you will get a consolidated report and can make monthly payouts using the same app. We aim to make workforce management a hassle free experience for you. “

Key Points

"Our software is designed for multi-business, multi-location operations. You can manage all types of staff (regular, contract) under a single application."

Now that I have shared all the benefits, will it be ok if I arrange an online meeting?

(Wait for the customer to respond)

< No>

"I understand. I'll leave my number with you in case you need our services in the future or know someone who might. (Try to convince the customer twice before marking no)

Thank you so much for your time. Have a Great day!
